

Westminster
Seminary California

Form 4: Intern Preaching Evaluation Form

Dear Listener,

Evaluation is an important and valuable contribution to the intern's preparation for ministry. We thank you for your willingness to complete this form. Please return this form electronically to fieldeducation@wscal.edu, or by mail to the following address:

Field Education Office
Westminster Seminary California
1725 Bear Valley Parkway
Escondido, CA 92027

Your Name

Date of Sermon

Teaching/Ruling Elder or Minister

Church Name

Sermon Text

Parishioner

Intern's Name

Sermon Title

The Sermon Content

Strongly
Disagree

Disagree

Neutral

Agree

Strongly
Agree

The sermon explained the distinctive message of the text in light of its context, purpose, and use of language.

The sermon showed how the text testifies to Jesus Christ through the unfolding history of redemption.

The sermon was easy to follow.

The sermon effectively used illustrations and examples to impress the text's message on the listeners.

The sermon called listeners to trust God's promises and to obey his command in ways appropriate to the text's message and purpose.

State in one sentence the sermon's main idea.

What kind of response did the sermon call for?

The Sermon Delivery

Strongly
Disagree Disagree Neutral Agree Strongly Agree

The intern read Scripture clearly, thoughtfully, and with proper emphasis and articulation.

The intern's vocal delivery was appropriately varied in volume, cadence, and tone.

The intern maintained appropriate eye contact.

The intern had good posture, gestures and facial expression.

The intern showed appropriate enthusiasm and conviction.

What was especially good about the sermon?

What could the intern do to improve the sermon?

Additional comments: