ST635 The Life & Theology of John Owen (1 credit)

Jason Pickard, PhD | Room 4

Jan 20–23, Tues–Fri, 1:15–4:30 pm

John Owen, one of the best and most influential Puritan divines, was a pastor, university vice-Chancellor, and chaplain to Oliver Cromwell during the turbulent seventeenth-century. This course examines Owen's life and thought within this context. Major works will be engaged as well as his sermons and the commentary on Hebrews. We will pay particular attention to Owen's theology proper, covenant theology, and exegetical method. Our goal is not simply descriptive but to see how Owen is still a helpful dialogue partner for the task of systematic theology today.

- Prerequisite: none

PT639 Ministry & Addiction (1 credit)

James Berry, DO | Room 5

Jan 27–30, Tues–Fri, 9:00 am–12:15 pm

After an introduction to the DSM-5-TR classification of Substance Use Disorders, this course surveys (1) the nature and effects of specific substances including alcohol, opioids, methamphetamine, and cannabis; (2) the spectrum of care available to people in need of addiction treatment. The aim is to equip students to competently identify addiction and other mental-health crises and compassionately assist parishioners who suffer from them. Students will also learn how to identify the signs of burnout and mental illness in themselves and minimize that risk.

- Prerequisite: none
- This course can be used to fulfill the 1-credit Missions elective requirement for PT511.
